Dear Pradeep,

I was extremely happy to receive a copy of the book published in honour of you and your life's work. While the book itself is a treasure house of fascinating essays and articles by a spectrum of eminent minds, it is your own achievements and hard work that have taken you to a position where CUTS is now counted among the foremost organisations of the country contributing to the formulation of public policy on a whole gamut of issues.

I will treasure the book you have sent me.

Warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Tino
